

Northern Cree Language Retention Committee and Gift of Language and Culture Project
presents Professional Development Opportunity for Teachers, Curriculum Consultants, Curriculum Developers, Curriculum Technicians to learn from kihtī-ayak – Elders

Registration Fee is $200.00 includes accommodation, meals and participation in the following workshops. Please refer to attached map and/or contact Henry Ratt at (306) 425-3098 for directions to the camp.

Please send cheque or money order payable to: Northern Cree Language Retention Committee c/o Laura Burnouf, Box 5000 NORTEP, La Ronge, Saskatchewan, SOJ 1L0

No fee for members of Northern Cree Language Retention Committee and employees of Gift of Language and Culture Project: Instructional and Immersion Sites
(La Ronge, Onion Lake, Prince Albert and La Loche)

Tuesday, May 11, 2010

Travel Day to Morning Lake

Cook your own supper.

Please see Henry and Sally Ratt for accommodation arrangements.

Wednesday, May 12, 2010

8:00 Cook your own breakfast.

10:00 a.m. Morning Prayer led by Elder Rosie McKenzie

All sessions will occur concurrently, so please select your choice of the workshop you plan to attend.

Prepare to make birch sap with Rosie McKenzie and Ida Tremblay.

Prepare to make birch bark baskets with Isaac McKenzie, Angelique McKenzie and Matilda Roberts.

Prepare traditional meal with Sally Ratt, Susan McKenzie, Florence Ratt and Grace H. Cook. (Prepare lunch)

Prepare how to make snowshoes with Daniel Cook.

Prepare how to make medicine with Nora Carle.

Prepare dye using red willow with Maggie Cook and Grace Cook.

Prepare a rabbit blanket with Martha Roberts.

Make beaded vamps and necklaces with Martha Ross and Flora Isbister.

Set the fish net with Wilson Charles.

Northern Cree Language Retention Committee and Gift of Language and Culture Project
presents Professional Development Opportunity for Teachers, Curriculum Consultants, Curriculum Developers, Curriculum Technicians to learn from kihtī-ayak – Elders

12:00 Lunch

1:00 All sessions will occur concurrently, so please select your choice of the workshop you plan to attend.

Birch sap with Rosie McKenzie.

Birch bark baskets with Isaac, Angelique and Matilda.

Prepare traditional meal with Sally Ratt, Susan McKenzie, Florence Ratt and Grace H. Cook. (Prepare supper).

Prepare dye using red willow with Maggie Cook and Grace Cook.

Snowshoes with Daniel Cook.

Beaded vamps and necklaces with Martha Ross and Flora Isbister.

Traditional medicine with Nora Carle.

Rabbit blanket with Martha Roberts.

5:00 Supper

Thursday, May 13, 2010

8:00 Morning prayer by Albert Ross. Cook your own breakfast.

Check fish net with Wilson Charles.

Sally Ratt, Grace H. Cook and Susan McKenzie will prepare lunch.

10:00 Cree Language Focus Group Meeting with Arlene Seegerts and Minnie McKenzie.

Topic for discussion: Examining the past to plan for the future.

12:00 Lunch

1:00 All sessions will occur concurrently, so please select your choice of the workshop you plan to attend.

Birch sap with Rosie McKenzie.

Birch bark baskets with Isaac, Angelique and Matilda.

Prepare traditional meal with Sally Ratt, Susan McKenzie, Florence Ratt and Grace H. Cook. (Prepare supper)

Snowshoes with Daniel Cook.

Northern Cree Language Retention Committee and Gift of Language and Culture Project
presents Professional Development Opportunity for Teachers, Curriculum Consultants,
Curriculum Developers, Curriculum Technicians to learn from kihtī-ayak – Elders

Prepare dye using red willow with Maggie Cook and Grace Cook.

Beaded vamps and necklaces with Martha Ross and Flora Isbister.

Traditional medicine with Nora Carle.

Rabbit blanket with Martha Roberts.

5:00 Supper

Friday, May 14, 2010

8:00 Morning prayer by Ida Tremblay. Cook your own breakfast.

Cree Language and Culture Teachers Meeting with Cornelius Ballantyne.

Topic for discussion: Working with Cultural Experts: Resource People/Elders.

12:00 Lunch

1:00 Travel home.

Note: Please bring your own blankets, pillow, toiletries, towel, plate, cup, utensils, dish towel, and other items you may need to camp for three nights. We will stay in cabins, but you are welcome to bring your own tent.

Please phone Ann Allen at (306) 425-4938 to confirm attendance. Transportation is provided for resource people and employees who work in La Ronge for Gift of Language and Culture Project. All other participants must provide own travel arrangement to and from camp.

Northern Cree Language Retention Committee and Gift of Language and Culture Project
presents Professional Development Opportunity for Teachers, Curriculum Consultants, Curriculum Developers, Curriculum Technicians to learn from kihtī-ayak – Elders
